

LOVED

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

I am not what I do
I'm not measured by how the world sees me
I have nothing to prove
Can't be gauging my worth by my feelings
I'm not less, I'm not more
Based on who's keeping score
I'm not prisoner to ways I feel judged

I am loved
I am loved
I am loved by the King of all Kings
I am loved, loved perfectly
Simply for me

I will fail left and right
Then sometimes I'll succeed and feel happy
I get caught up in pride
And let things on the outside define me
But I keep coming up short
'Cause that's not what life's for
And the cross tells me I am enough

I am loved
I am loved
I am loved by the King of all Kings
I am loved, loved perfectly
Simply for me

And I could climb every mountain
Win every prize
Or sink to the valley
No strength left to find
But Lord, in Your eyes...

I am loved
I am loved
I am loved by the King of all Kings
I am loved, loved perfectly
Simply for me
I am loved, loved perfectly
Simply for me

GOOD TO ME

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

You have been good to me
Through every season and possibility
So on the days I struggle to believe
I remind myself
You have been so good to me

Through the darkness
In the broken
When I've nothing left to offer You
Every promise
You have spoken
Was a path that led me to the truth
It led me straight to You

You have been good to me
Through every season and possibility
So on the days I struggle to believe
I remind myself
You have been so good to me

In the springtime
Through the winter
When my ground's been cracked and shattered through
God of my life
You have whispered
You've invited me to trust in You
I will trust in You

You have been good to me
Through every season and possibility
So on the days I struggle to believe
I remind myself
You have been so good

You have been there when I
Couldn't see You
When I failed to trust You heard me call
But goodness doesn't mean that Things will go the way I think
It means You'll be there through it all

You have been good to me
Through every season and possibility
So on the days I struggle to believe
I remind myself
You have been so good...
You have been good, oh You've been so good to me
Through every season and possibility
So on the days I struggle to believe
I remind myself, I remind myself
I remind myself
You have been so good to me

DEEP DOWN

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

I can't find a way
Through these troubled times
Been searching for some answers
And a certain peace of mind
But what I need to know
Is You're here among what's broken
You're here among these broken parts

'Cause I know Your pow'r
Lights up the stars in the night sky
I know Your voice
Commands every ocean "no further than this line"
But I need the love of my Father
To break through in my life
To feel You deep down
To know You're right here, right now

There's no place to hide
Your Spirit always finds me
But my faith is not yet sight
And I need You to remind me
That while You're King of kings
You are close enough to hear me
You're closer than my beating heart

'Cause I know Your pow'r
Lights up the stars in the night sky
I know Your voice
Commands every ocean "no further than this line"
But I need the love of my Father
To break through in my life
To feel You deep down
To know You're right here...

Right now I know Your eye is on the sparrow Help me believe I'm more than these
Right now I feel so burdened by my sorrow
I need to know You have a hold on me

I know Your pow'r
Lights up the stars in the night sky
I know Your voice
Commands every ocean "no further than this line"
But I need the love of my Father
To break through in my life
To feel You deep down
To know You're right here...
Oh, I need the love of my Father
To break through in my life
To feel You deep down
To know You're right here
Right now

HOPE SPRINGS UP

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

How I yearn for Your love
How my heart needs Your saving
Many miles on this dusty road
Find me craving Your goodness, Lord
I catch glimpses of You
Then You're just out of reaching
Holy well that will not run dry
Just one drink and You'll save my life

Jesus, You are the hope that will spring up
When my whole world has come crashing down
All around is Jesus
Whispering peace in my darkness
Flood me with You, I want nothing less
Jesus

You can see where I am
All my fears and my failures
Days I'm buried in grief and pain
Nights I battle with wondering
Yet I trust You're enough
And You're all You have promised
Every scar on Your hands and feet
Show Your oceans of love for me

Jesus, You are the hope that will spring up
When my whole world has come crashing down
All around is Jesus
Whispering peace in my darkness
Flood me with You, I want nothing less
Jesus

Savior of my heart
Hope of my salvation
Walk into this desert place and find me
Step into my brokenness, revive me
Savior of my heart
Remind me

(That) Jesus, You are hope that will spring up
When my whole world has come crashing down
All around is Jesus
Whispering peace in my darkness
Flood me with You, I want nothing less
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus

JUST ONE JESUS

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

Just one glimpse of Your cross
And we are changed, every one of us
Just one whisper of Your love
And we are undone
Just one drop of amazing grace
One reflection of Your face
Just one mention of Your name
And we'll never be the same

Holy is the King of Glory
Jesus, One and Only
The Father's perfect Son
Holy, You set a table for me
You're healing and restoring
It is finished, it is done
To the cross we come

Just one sacrifice alone
Paid the ransom for our souls
Just one Savior and His blood
Made the way for us
Just one King, You took our sin
And with Your death brought life again
And with one crushing victory
You set the prisoner free

Holy is the King of Glory
Jesus, One and Only
The Father's perfect Son
Holy, You set a table for me
You're healing and restoring
It is finished, it is done
To the cross we come
Oh, to the cross we come

Just one life we have to live
Just one voice, our praise to give
Just one Jesus, center of it all
Just one Lamb, our only Hope
Just one song around Your throne
Just one Jesus, center of it all
Just one Jesus, center of it all

Holy is the King of Glory
Jesus, One and Only
The Father's perfect Son
Holy, You set a table for me
You're healing and restoring
It is finished, it is done
It is finished, it is done
It is finished, it is done
To the cross, we come

I'M GONNA LOVE YOU

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

I don't feel like I have much to offer You
There's so much I would change or wish I could undo
But if you'll take all I am and all I'll never be
The beauty and the mess of me
I can love authentically

With all my heart and all my mind
Through all the doubt I seem to find
I'm gonna love You
With all the questions, all the fear
With all my strength and every tear
I'm gonna love You, I'm gonna love You
I'm gonna love You, Lord

I have tried to trust in You more perfectly
But all the while You've welcomed my uncertainty
You see me cry in pain and hear my wondering
Lord, even in the questioning
Could this be my offering?

With all my heart and all my mind
Through all the doubt I seem to find
I'm gonna love You
With all the questions, all the fear
With all my strength and every tear
I'm gonna love You, I'm gonna love You
I'm gonna love You...

I've never been the type to lay my mind to rest
I just keep asking why, and Lord, I must confess
So many things about You are unclear to me
So, help me keep believing through this mystery

With all my heart and all my mind
Through all the doubt I seem to find
I'm gonna love You
With all the questions, all the fear
With all my strength and every tear
I'm gonna love You, Lord

With all my heart and all my soul
Through all the things I can't control
I'm gonna love You, Lord
Through every season, every trial
Through all my heartache, every mile
I'm gonna love You, I'm gonna love You
I'm gonna love You, Lord

HE LOVES YOU MORE

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

I'm placing you
In the arms of the Father
You are safest there
And I'm praying today
For all your tomorrows
Casting every care

If you could see
See what I see
Your beautiful heart
Shining right back at me

Child, how He loves you
Oh, how He loves you
I pray this one thing
You will know to your core
He'll never leave you
He won't forsake you
And as much as I love you
He loves you more
And as much as I love you
He loves you more

As You're charting your path
With the road stretched before you
Tune your ear to Love
He's the wind at your back
He's the One fighting for you
And He will be enough

When I can't reach
Reach for your hand
Of one thing I'm sure
He has a good plan

Child, how He loves you
Oh, how He loves you
I pray this one thing
You will know to your core
He'll never leave you
He won't forsake you
And as much as I love you
He loves you more
As much as I love you
He loves you more

And should you falter
Let grace be an altar
Where mercy will carry you home
To heal and revive you
Redeem and remind you
That His love will never let go
No, He'll never let go

Child, how He loves you
Oh, how He loves you
I pray this one thing
You will know to your core
He'll never leave you
He won't forsake you
And as much as I love you
He loves you more
As much as I love you
He loves you more

Oh, how He loves you
I pray this one thing
You will know to your core
He'll never leave you
He won't forsake you
And as much as I love you
He loves you more
As much as I love you
He loves you more

I'm placing you
In the arms of the Father
You are safest there

JET STREAM

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

Your life left trails of vapor and smoke
Your fiery heart left a burning hole here in my soul
A hero and a legend in my eyes
Oh, how I wish there'd been more time

You dared to slice through the wind and air
On golden wings, your comrades knew you would be there
Good-bye just never feels alright
But for as long as I'm alive

I'll be following your jet stream
Living life full throttle
Here in the moment
Not worried 'bout tomorrow
I'll be facing each day
With the sun bright
With the sun bright on me
I'll be flying in your jet stream
We've got miles worth chasing
And I wouldn't say I've ever been the bravest
But since you've been gone
I'm learning more what life means
Following your jet stream

Life doesn't always go as planned
You can out-manuever for a while, until you can't
Your heart stayed fearless to the end
Until your greatest flight began

I'll be following your jet stream
Living life full throttle
Here in the moment
Not worried 'bout tomorrow
I'll be facing each day
With the sun bright
With the sun bright on me
I'll be flying in your jet stream
We've got miles worth chasing
And I wouldn't say I've ever been the bravest
But since you've been gone
I'm learning more what life means
Following you...

Godspeed to you
You went out in a blaze of glory
Godspeed to you
How I love to tell your story
Godspeed to you
I'll join you when I'm through
But until I do

I'll be following your jet stream
Living life full throttle
Here in the moment
Not worried 'bout tomorrow
I'll be facing each day
With the sun bright
With the sun bright on me
I'll be flying in your jet stream
We've got miles worth chasing
You always said life's a risk worth taking
And since you've been gone
I'm learning more what that means
Oh, now that you're gone
You don't need to worry 'bout me
I'll be following your jet stream
Following your jet stream

REDEEMER

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

Countless are the ways
You've been the steadiest of places
You have always been the reason I survive
As I look back on the years
And on the miracle that's here now
I must stop and take it in for just a while
It's true, You bring beauty for my ashes
It's You, in the face of such disaster

Redeemer, Redeemer
I have found You to be faithful and true
Redeemer, my Redeemer
There is nothing impossible for You
I start again, You make me new
You rain down mercy, like only You can do
Light of my life, Theme of my song
My Redeemer

There are many things
I wish I could go back and change
But in the end I choose to trust You with it all
And maybe through the brokenness
I've learned to hear Your voice the best
And all the ache has led to joy right now
It's true, You give gladness for my mourning
It's You, You're the King who will restore me

Redeemer, Redeemer
I have found You to be faithful and true
Redeemer, my Redeemer
There is nothing impossible for You
I start again, You make me new
You rain down mercy, like only You can do
Light of my life, Theme of my song

There have been days I wonder
Where Your hand was in it all
I bore the weight of too much pain and fear
For far too long
But now You've placed upon my head
A crown of righteousness instead
And I am Your very own

Redeemer, Redeemer
I have found You to be faithful and true
Redeemer, my Redeemer
There is nothing impossible for You
I start again, You make me new
You rain down mercy, like only You can do
Light of my life, Theme of my song
Light of my life, Theme of my song
Light of my life, Theme of my song
My Redeemer

I LOVE OUR LIFE

words & music by Shannon J. Adducci

I love our life
Epic story in the making
Simple beauty we're creating
With this precious gift of time
I love our life
Some might call it ordinary
But I wonder what's more daring
Than two hearts ablaze with fire

I love the times
When we sit and talk for hours
When to-do lists aren't a bother at all
I love the miles
We have trekked on hills and coastlines
And every time we wander home I find
I love our life

I love our life
Whether springtime or in winter
When the crisp leaves start to quiver
And they shimmer through the sky
I love your smile
And the rain outside our window
How you pull me close til I know
It's gonna be alright

And even while
The road was long to get here
Our winding path has led to this surprise
We've come alive
With music and bright color
We couldn't make this up if we tried
I love our life

The way we laugh
The way we cry
The way our heart are intertwined
Any how we pray at early morning light
This tender love, a touch of the divine
I love our life
I love our life
